

UCI Conveyor

A very stable conveyor

- ✓ Based on an U-construction
- ✓ High stability
- ✓ Customer-Specific Engineering
- ✓ Side seal
- ✓ Widely used within the compost and (light) recycling industries
- ✓ Bandwidth 500-1000 mm

Stable and reliable

The UCI-Conveyor is widely used within the compost and (light) recycling industries. Clients within these industries choose the UCI-Conveyor for its stability, reliability and solid U-construction.

Depending on your application area, various additional applications on the conveyor belt are possible. Think of applications such as; special scrapers, supports, and hoppers.

To combine with

The UCI Conveyor is regularly combined with other of our conveyor belts and a loading bunker. about all the possibilities? Please do not hesitate to contact us.

At Koning's Transportbandenbouw, we have more than 25 years of experience in conveyor belts for agriculture and industry. We can therefore always provide you with good advice in conveyor belts and related products.

About us

Koning's Transportbandenbouw is a company that has grown into a company that supplies conveyor belts and poultry manure removal systems to companies all over the world. Our diverse customer base consists of customers operating in various markets within the Agriculture and the Industry.

About 20 specialized employees work on the engineering and manufacturing of our products every day. This all happens under one roof at our business location located in Nederweert (The Netherlands).